SKULE BOG UNITED DISTRICT.

Provisional Order.

WHEREAS an application has been made to the Local Government Board 5 for Ireland by the Guardians of the Poor of the Croom Union, and by the Guardians of the Poor of the Limerick Union, in pursuance of the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, section 12, to form a united district to consist of the townlands herein-after mentioned, situated partly in the rural sanitary district consisting of the Croom Union, and partly in the rural sanitary district 10 consisting of the Limerick Union, for the purposes herein-after mentioned:

41 & 42 Vict.
c. 52, sec. 12.

And whereas all notices and advertisements required by the said Act having been duly served, given, and published, and due inquiry held, it appears to the Local Government Board for Ireland that it will be for the advantage of the rural sanitary districts, consisting respectively of the said Croom Union 15 and the said Limerick Union, and of the proposed united district, to form the said united district, in the manner herein-after stated:

It is ordered by the Local Government Board for Ireland as follows:

1. From and after the confirmation of this Order by Parliament, a united district shall be formed, and thenceforth shall consist of the townlands 20 of Carnane, Cloghdoelarty North, Cloghdoelarty South, and Easghros (parts of the rural sanitary district consisting of the Croom Union), and of the townland of Arywee (part of the rural sanitary district consisting of the Limerick Union). Such united district shall be formed for the purposes herein-after mentioned.

Formation of united district, 41 & 42 Vict.
c. 52, s. 12.

2. The governing body of the said united district shall be a joint board, consisting of four ex-officio members, and of four elective members.
The ex-officio members shall be the elected Guardians of the Poor for the time being representing the electoral divisions of Fedamore, Rathmore, and Grange, in the Croom Poor Law Union, and the 30 electoral division of Ballybricken, in the Limerick Poor Law Union.
The joint board shall be a body corporate, having the name of "The Skule Bog Drainage District Board," and having perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire and hold lands, for the purposes of its constitution, without any license in mortmain.

Governing body of united district, 41 & 42 Vict.
c. 52, s. 12.

3. The purposes for which such united district shall be formed are as follows:—making and maintaining main sewers, and carrying into effect and maintaining a system of sewerage and drainage for sanitary purposes of the united district. The joint board shall, for the purposes 40 inforessed, and with respect to such united district, be authorized to exercise and perform, and shall be subject to all powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations, which any sanitary authority is (by the said Act) authorized to exercise or perform, or is subject to, with respect to the sanitary district of such sanitary authority.

4. The elective members of the joint board shall be four persons, each of whom shall be a justice of the peace for the county of Limerick, and 5 resident within one or more of the Poor Law Unions of Croom, or of Limerick, and acting as an ex-officio Guardian of one of the said Unions. Two of the elective members of the joint board shall be elected by the Guardians of the Poor of the Limerick Union, and two by the Guardians of the Poor of Croom Union. 10

The first election of elective members of the joint board by each of the said boards of guardians shall take place at a meeting of the board of guardians to be held within one month after the confirmation of this Order by Parliament. Subsequent elections of elective members of the joint board by each of the said boards of guardians respectively shall take place at the meeting of the board of 15 guardians which shall occur on or after the 8th of April in each year.

The mode of election of elective members of the joint board shall be in all respects that prescribed by the general regulations of the Poor Law Commissioners of the 19th January, 1852, for the appointment of officers.

Each elective member of the joint board shall continue in office until the 20 next annual election of elective members of the joint board following his election, unless a casual vacancy in his office shall previously take place.

Casual vacancies in the office of elective members of the joint board shall be filled, as follows:—The board of guardians who shall have elected the member of the joint board whose office shall then have become vacant, shall 25 at some meeting to take place not later than twenty-one days after the occurrence of such vacancy, elect a person duly qualified to be an elective member of the board to fill such vacancy. Such election shall be conducted in all respects in the same manner as annual elections of elective members of the joint board. 30

The first meeting of the joint board in each year shall take place on the first Saturday which shall take place next after the first elected members of the joint board shall have been all elected. The joint board shall afterwards meet once at least in every month on some day to be fixed at the last preceding meeting, or if no such day be fixed, then on the first Saturday in each month. The 35 joint board shall at their first meeting, and at each meeting which shall in each year first occur next after the election of elective members of the joint board, appoint one of the members of the joint board to be chairman, and another member to be vice-chairman of the joint board. Such chairman and vice-chairman shall hold office after his appointment until he dies, or resigns, 40 or ceases to be a member of the joint board, or until the time arrives for the next annual appointment of a chairman or vice-chairman whichever time shall first happen. In the event of a casual vacancy in the office of chairman or of vice-chairman, the joint board shall, at their next meeting after such vacancy shall have taken place, elect some member of the joint board to fill 45 such vacancy. Business shall be transacted at meetings of the joint board in the same manner in all respects as is prescribed for meetings of Boards of Guardians of the Poor. A.D. 1880.

5. This Order may be cited and referred to for all purposes as the Skule Bog United District Provisional Order, 1880. Sheet 61a
